APPLICATION FORM FOR OFFICE BEARERS (2022 – 2023)

Participating in the Student Senate is a privilege and an important responsibility. Your role as part of the Student Senate is to act on behalf of your fellow peers and benefit the larger community. You are also responsible for setting a good and positive example for the rest of the school, upholding the standards and policies of the school, along with enforcing those standards and policies. The Student Senate is also responsible for coordinating and conducting various school programmes such as Student Led conference, Student LED leadership camps etc. Again, being a member of the Student Senate is a full school year commitment. In order to participate in Student Senate, you must be in good academic and behavioral standing at school.
